

Control

To direct each unit of his army in the field, to execute a quick attack at any point, a play of strategy or sudden shift of tactics, the business general who uses

WESTERN UNION
is everywhere at once

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

Chroniclings From South Texas Towns

Falfurrias

Dr. H. C. Dailey, who recently moved to Del Rio with his family from Kaufman, has gone back to his old home to close up his business, and will concentrate all his energies in this section.

A foremen's party was given by Miss Ida Hargrove Saturday night in honor of Elizabeth McHenry, who was leaving Sunday morning for Kansas City.

The High School has secured a new Vicker stereopticon slide lantern which will be used for illustrated lectures on agricultural subjects and for general entertainment.

Miss Leila Mandie (Leaman) of Corpus Christi, is the guest of Miss Leila Hartshorne here this week.

Miss Ollie Oliver has returned from a two-weeks' visit at Corpus Christi and El Campo Ranch near Alice.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beck of Cherokees, Oklahoma, are visiting their niece, Mrs. A. M. Hartshorne, and will probably remain for the winter.

Dr. H. M. Bennett has returned from a business visit to Williamson county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott entertained the Young Married People's Club at its last meeting. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Riley, Miss Urville Bachal and John Bennett.

Kingsville

On Monday evening Mrs. H. C. Dailey entertained with a very enjoyable moving picture party. After the theatre the ladies repaired to King Inn where refreshments were served, after which several hours were spent in social chitchat. Those present were: Anna Blanche Cotton, Esther Nolan, Ned Goff, Ruth Sims, Oklahoma, Mary Waterman, Eddie Charles, Ladd, Grace Hogan, Ruth Wagner, Dr. Worth, Abbieanne, H. A. Murray, Frank Barnett, F. A. Roemer, R. G. Price, H. C. Bennett, J. P. Wagner, Dr. Worth, C. O. Hollingsworth and the horses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wright entertained on Tuesday evening at a "soirée" party, complimentary to their cousin, Dray and Ruth Wagner of Dr. Worth. The invited guests were of the younger set who enjoyed this charmingly informal hospitality.

Miss Tex Tilley returned last week from Mexico City, where she has been visiting her parents.

Mrs. O. Hollingsworth was hostess at a very elaborate bridge party Wednesday afternoon. The reception rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, a profusion of flowers adding their attractiveness. Four tables were used, four prizes were awarded to the ladies making the highest scores. For the afternoon, after the game refreshments were served. The guests were: Madelaine, R. G. Flato, Fritz Frumkin, C. F. Heyser, Shirley Heyser, Ruth Heyser (Dallas), H. A. Murray, Sims, Jr., J. D. Gibbs, B. P. Doherty, F. A. Roemer, J. B. Wright, H. C. Bennett, J. W. Walters, B. H. Dool, J. C. Nolan, E. L. Hoffman, M. Echert, E. D. Stetzen, J. H. Shelton, E. H. Conner, M. S. Wood, J. D. Flanagan, B. Mitchell, H. A. Brinson, H. A. Collier, Frank Cook, Frank Barnett, E. D. Dunlap, A. J. Markee, Frank Hobson, H. Harrington, J. E. Wagner (Dr. Worth), Mrs. L. Kowalewski, Misses Esther Nolan, Freda Dahlman, Blanche Cotton, Drew Stage, Ruth Wagner (Dr. Worth), Grace Hogan and Ned Goff.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Green and son, Dan, of Hobart, Oklahoma, arrived Thursday afternoon having made the trip over land in three days. They are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Beckham.

Mrs. H. H. Harrington entertained on Friday afternoon with a very pretty garden party honoring Mrs. Estill Heyser of Dallas. Auction bridge was played at four tables. The prizes, two hand-embroidered laceheen sets were awarded to the ladies making the highest scores. The guest's prize was a beautiful crepe-de-china cambric.

Mrs. Heyser has returned from a short stay in Corpus Christi.

Edward Roberts left here this week

Bob Heywood and Gus Womack spent Saturday and Sunday here on business for their firms.

J. E. Athine has returned from a short stay in Corpus Christi.

Edward Roberts left here this week

for Florida, where he expects to remain for several months.

Captain Ed. Mercer and Raymond Scott of the Delta, who have been absent for the past three months, are shaking hands with friends today.

Captain Edmond Armstrong and Robert Mercer left for Galveston on the Gertrude.

Mrs. H. A. Womack left for Corpus Christi today after a ten day's visit to her parents, Captain and Mrs. Miss J. Luther.

Beeville.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall arrived in San Antonio Sunday. They were accompanied by Miss Mildred Nash, who was returning to her home in Arkansas after a visit of several months with friends here and in Pleasanton. Mrs. Bachal Day and daughter, Fannie are spending the week in San Antonio.

Mr. R. P. Gay was the guest of Mrs. J. Howard Johnson in Dallas. Mrs. James Dauphin, Miss Jose Wood and Dasing Terton have returned from week end visit in Austin.

Mrs. J. C. Hendry is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradley at Texas.

Mrs. E. Blakely was hostess in the El Club Friday afternoon.

Mrs. R. P. Gay enjoyed six hours of bridge Thursday afternoon.

San Benito.

Miss Ethel Meyer and children of Corpus Christi arrived Thursday to spend the winter with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Borie.

Mrs. J. L. Landrum of Austin is the week end guest of Mrs. W. L. Franks.

Mrs. E. Linn who has been here nearly a year as secretary in the law office of Morrissey & Gerards, left last week for Smithville, Texas to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath May of Mission were Sunday guests in San Benito.

Miss Carol Lee of the local girls' school is spending a two weeks' vacation in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Goo Walker and daughter, Helen, members of the San Benito Girl Scouts, are spending a week in San Benito.

J. J. Callaway of Brownsville came to meet the local boy scouts.

Miss Isobel Roscoe of Dallas is in San Benito. Miss Roscoe has many friends here.

Miss Bonthof, wife of Major Bonthof, of the South Dakota regiment, and daughter, Miss Linda, have arrived in San Benito to spend the winter.

Among the bodies of San Benito who attended the Big Texas Girls' Thanksgiving at Wimberley were Madeline, J. E. Anderson, H. F. Woods, R. H. Dooly, Brooks, Charles, thought W. F. Hickey and W. G. Freeman of the Woman's Culture Club; E. A. Edwards, Ward, Carpenter, A. A. Abingdon, Bannister of the Alamo Club and Kent Meekins of the Custom Exchange.

Miss McMurry Blackie, now teacher in the San Benito High School, has joined the Girl Scouts. Three others of the members and invited guests were present. A delicious salad dinner was served after the games.

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Corpus Christi people should know that few cases of simple appendicitis, occurring in an otherwise healthy person, often relapse or present complications. This simple infection may occur with appendicitis and sometimes with appendicitis and septicemia that ONE APPENDIX, before all else, ANXIE CARRYING A LOAD OF STOMACH OR GUTS. A short resounding sympathetic symptom follows. Afterward comes expectant and eager through a train of anything he ever eats. J. S. BREWER, DALLAS—Advertisement.

JOHNSON DEFEATS BOONE

HARRISONBURG, N. J.—Lee W. Johnson, State Senator (Dist. Fifteen) and of California, in a letter to Arthur Gandy, Republican State Committee, pointed out pictures here today exposed his feelings for Boone by a touch of sarcasm.

He said: "I am sorry to say that

Boone is a bad man."

McKinney Blackie, now teacher

in the San Benito High School, has joined the Girl Scouts. Three others of the members and invited guests were present. A delicious salad dinner was served after the games.

WOULD REPEAL DEFENSE ACT

WACO, TEXAS—Sam H. Nichols, local's newest member to replace Mr. Nichols and of California, in a letter to Arthur Gandy, Republican State Committee, pointed out pictures here today exposed his feelings for Boone by a touch of sarcasm.

He said: "I am sorry to say that

Boone is a bad man."

McKinney Blackie, now teacher

in the San Benito High School, has joined the Girl Scouts. Three others of the members and invited guests were present. A delicious salad dinner was served after the games.

JOHNSON DEFEATS BOONE

HARRISONBURG, N. J.—Lee W. Johnson, State Senator (Dist. Fifteen) and of California, in a letter to Arthur Gandy, Republican State Committee, pointed out pictures here today exposed his feelings for Boone by a touch of sarcasm.

He said: "I am sorry to say that

Boone is a bad man."

McKinney Blackie, now teacher

in the San Benito High School, has joined the Girl Scouts. Three others of the members and invited guests were present. A delicious salad dinner was served after the games.

Along the Troop Streets Of Texas Brigade Camp

The Caller will be glad to print in this column News and Persons Items for the Militiamen. All communications should be left at the Caller office not later than 8 o'clock at night.

Sergeant DeSilets of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Major W. H. Horn, of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of captain, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Transcriber Bonnie Miles of Company D, Second Regiment, has a pet phrase which is his constant companion, "Big d—". It is tame than any cuss word, and may be seen and heard in trimpey, who is a native of New York, and is a well-known character in the city. She has a sharp tongue, and is very popular among the men.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Transcriber Bonnie Miles of Company D, Second Regiment, has a pet phrase which is his constant companion, "Big d—". It is tame than any cuss word, and may be seen and heard in trimpey, who is a native of New York, and is a well-known character in the city. She has a sharp tongue, and is very popular among the men.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Transcriber Bonnie Miles of Company D, Second Regiment, has a pet phrase which is his constant companion, "Big d—". It is tame than any cuss word, and may be seen and heard in trimpey, who is a native of New York, and is a well-known character in the city. She has a sharp tongue, and is very popular among the men.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the conclusion that Sergeant DeSilva must have had in mind Major W. H. Horn's name, since the name of the man who was always repeating this sentence to others, as being something which once heard, could never be forgotten. —A red top-sail for Tex and Eric, and a blue top-sail for

Robert DeSilva of the Field Artillery, 10th Cavalry, was promoted to the rank of sergeant major, effective November 1. He succeeds Sergeant DeSilva, 10th Cavalry, who was promoted to the rank of captain. DeSilva was promoted to the rank of captain on October 1, 1921.

Thinking over the Sergeant's reply, the Caller man had come to the